About you

Our Ambassadors are individuals who have a good level of knowledge about Crossref, work within the wider academic community, and possess some experience of working with our systems.

We aim for the Ambassador Program to be complimentary to the existing work and skills of our Ambassadors. Bearing that in mind, we would like to hear a little about you.

7. So, tell us a bit about why you are interested in becoming a Crossref ambassador? *

8. If you could describe Crossref in 3 words, what would they be?

9. What is your current job role/area of research? *

10. Do you use or work with Crossref systems and services in your current role? If so, in what capacity?

11. How did you hear about the Crossref Ambassador Program?
